MEMORANDUM TO: Deputy Director/Support

SUBJECT : Employer-Employee Relations

1. I have just received a very thoughtful letter from [] (copy attached) expressing his appreciation and that of Mrs. [] for the aid and assistance rendered during the illness and loss of their daughter, Jane. As you know, this is the second child lost recently by these parents.

2. The letter from the [] is more than a "thank-you" letter. It shows the extent to which the Agency will go to help an employee and his family in a period of emergency, and it is instances such as this that are in keeping with the fine cooperative spirit prevailing throughout our organization.

3. I am most appreciative of the whole-hearted support rendered by your people in this case.

1. I am indeed proud to forward this memorandum from the Director and the attached copy of a letter from Mr. []

Memo dtd 3 Jan 58 to DD/S fr DCI, subj: "Employer-Employee Relations."

2. The commendable action in this case is, I know, typical of the service that you are trying to render to the Agency and our employees which, I am sure, is more and more appreciated by everyone even though few may have occasion to offer such official recognition.
